Parents-Teachers Organize At Yoe Auditorium Sept. 13

A Parent-Teacher organizational meet is scheduled for Thursday afternoon at 4 p.m., September 13, in the Yoe High Auditorium.

359 Register At Yoe, More Expected; Le Roy, Mrs. Thompson Move To Sour Lake

By James E. "Bo" Patterson
Mr. and Mrs. LeRoy Thompson have accepted a bid to teach in the Sour Lake schools it was revealed only last week and soon after the announcement of the resignation of the Vocational Agriculture teacher the services of F. M. Davis of San Antonio had been secured. Mrs. Thompson will teach Science courses in Sour Lake. Thompson said that the small Sour Lake School has one of the best equipped Ag departments in the state. The school there has already located living quarters for the family.

William C. "Bill" Black, Cameron City Attorney and practicing lawyer has accepted the teaching post left vacant by the departure of Mrs. Leroy Thompson. He is teaching second year Algebra and junior and senior Geometry. During the past year he has taught in the G. I. night school here and carries a master of arts degree from Baylor University.

Superintendent Wiley Loughmiller was highly complimentary of the staff which started high school with the first period at 8:30 a.m. Monday and met each class throughout the regular schedule. The grades started classes at 10 a. m. Monday after the issuance of books. The buses and the cafeteria were on schedule the first day without a hitch the superintendent boasted.

Since the spring of '56 there have been 60 registered for Yoe High this year and on Monday the registrations totaled up to 359 with 110 freshmen, 80 sophomores, 100 juniors and 69 seniors registering.

In browsing through the book room we ran across an attractive course in "Adventures In Appreciation". In discovering what the course teaches the student to appreciate it was found that it included the best in 1. Literature 2. Short Stories 3. Prose 4. Poetry 5. Drama and 6. The Novel.

On the subject of words a paragraph read "Words may be used with little knowledge of what they mean, and may be used with little sense of responsibility for making the meaning clear." "Language not carefully used may become a false front which far from revealing what we do think conceals the fact that we aren't thinking at all." This thought became not a little disquieting when we thought of the tools of the newspaper trade... words.

The student of Yoe High School today is not forced to live in the dark past alone. History today for example, brings the student up to the minute with accounts of the Korean war and with current books to complement the study of American History the recent "Democrat" and "Republican" party conventions in Chicago and San Francisco are incorporated in the history diet of the student.

In homemaking, which today is a major course among the young ladies the books are brought up to date so that the old pictures of the "funny hair-dos" of years back are not included among the pictures and other more or less antique pictures of how mother and grandmother did the housework years and years ago are not included but give way to modern.

Community Chest Seeks Community Leader For Head

Superintendent Wiley Loughmiller, Mrs. Dubois reported, has given his complete blessing to the principal of Parent-Teacher organization and declared his intention of giving complete cooperation.

Bond Vote, Budget Hearing Set; Streets To Be Opened

In a budget message at a special meeting of city council Monday night Mayor Weems pointed out that this is the first full budget submitted under the new charter.

The mayor lamented that "too many cooks spoil the broth" and that since responsibility of making the budget was his only that he did it "for better or worse" and reminded that it was up to council to add or delete as they see fit.

Weems pointed out that the better police enforcement we now enjoy is more expensive to the tune of $9,000 more. Garbage collections cost about $6,000 a year. City Attorney and City Judge salaries cost more than before, although that extra cost is partly offset by the fact that fines now go into the City Treasury.

I have given the Superintendent of Public Works, W. D. Bigbee, as much as possible for repairing streets. His seal-coating seems to be working and if it saves the streets it will save us hundreds of thousands of dollars by not having to redo all our pavement, the mayor said.

I have cut out the tax machine because of lack of money in the General Fund.

I have included seven hundred and fifty dollars for the additional fire siren that will cover equipment, installation, and rental of a line for a year. I feel we really need it.

$301 is included for a two-way radio for our police force. It is essential if the small force is to accomplish the job of policing the entire city.

$1500 has been included for lighting the city park for the colored people.

I have not obligated the Sewer Department surplus because of the coming bond election. The workers in this department should have a raise to $40 per week.

There is no provision for paying for necessary rights of way and easements. However, there are some surpluses in various funds which the Council should leave on to be used to pay for the necessary money to pay for the coming fiscal year.

The main problem in this city as I see it the mayor continues is proper equalization of the taxes. The tax roll ought to be based on a definite percentage of actual value. Most properties are still carried on the rolls according to their depreciation value. Since that time they have increased at least five-fold. Our equalization boards each year seem to cut the total tax evaluation. The Council should give earnest consideration to either an equalization board that will be favorable to a more realistic evaluation or an outside board of evaluation experts for next year. I feel that Mr. Frank Richter should have a raise in recognition of his years of faithful service but I could not find the money this year, the mayor concluded.

Announcement of the budget hearing, in legal form is in this edition. It sets 7:30 p.m. Monday, September 17 at City Hall as time and place for the public hearing.

Opening Colfax Avenue Ordered; Water-Sewer Bond Election Set

Election officials for the city water bond vote on September 29 were chosen Tuesday night. City Council heard first reading of an ordinance proposed by the city planning board by its chairman, Richard Moseley following which a much discussed proposition of opening Colfax Avenue on the northside was voted unanimously.

Election officials on the water and sewer propositions will be Dan Gunn, George McGeehee, B. J. Matosha and Mrs. John Ryan. The election is scheduled for Saturday, September 29. A second reading of the ordinance calling for the election was read at the Tuesday meeting and the legal notice of the election is in this edition.

Superintendent of Public Works W. D. Bigbee was instructed following unanimous vote of council to proceed with opening of Colfax Avenue from West Main northward to the Zarnoky subdivision. This portion of Colfax Avenue being the former Corporation Avenue shown on the plat of the Henderson addition. The superintendent was instructed to cooperate with Mr. Jesse Kirk Sr. on relocation of a fence which now crosses the proposed cut. Bigbee was also instructed to open West First Street from Vogelsang westward to Colfax Avenue.

Following a reading of the tentative budget at a special Monday night meeting which excluded an item calling for expenditure of near $5,000 for an elaborate bookkeeping machine proposed recently by the Burroughs Company the National Cash Register Company had a salesman at the Tuesday night regular meeting with a sales talk for a machine even a little more elaborate and "enticing" than the first, according to those who would use the machines if installed. The National Cash Register price for the machine alone was quoted at $5,000.

Alvin Heff, water department head, was concerned with water more than many of the other details of the Tuesday night meeting and so looked up the weather reports for the past thirty days which read on August 19 the rainfall was .75, August 25, .03; August 26, .23; August 29, .29; September 3, .45; September 4, .13 for a total of 1.88 in the past thirty days.

Well Water Supply For Cameron Studied By Ft. Worth Engineers

"One favorite question of some 'engineers' is the proposed water bond issue of $200,000 is covered in the engineering report by the Joe J. Rely and Company Consulting Engineers.

FUTURE WELL WATER SUPPLY

As a part of this report we were instructed to review the possibility of securing a well water supply as well as reviewing the adequacy of the present supply from the Little River and make recommendations as to the future source of water for Cameron.

It is necessary to discuss it not only from the standpoint of the present conditions and the conditions for the short term future but the conditions for the long term future since whichever method of supply is chosen, it will be very difficult to ever change it at a later date.

The test borings made by the State Highway Department for the present highway bridge indicates some sand and gravel which might be water bearing. This was found in only a few of the test holes and does not seem to be widespread.

Any such source of water would be fed by underflow from the river so might fall off in capacity materially in periods of low stream flow unless the gravel strata covered a wide area and held a lot of water in storage.

Night Police Chief in Austin At Day School

Night Chief of Police Brandenburg is in Austin this week attending Traffic Officers School at the Law Enforcement Academy.

This is the same school which Chief Willie Dolan attended recently. Dolan said that the officers attend classes ten hours daily and that they come from all ranks, from patrolmen to chief and from Sheriff departments over the state. Forty eight men are in the class.

The men stay in the Academy's barracks and eat in the mess hall of the Academy's modernistic Austin quarters.

The week's schooling, meals and all cost the officer $20. In the case of Cameron the fee is paid by the officer. In some instances the cost is borne by the city or the state in the case of Highway Patrolmen.

Planning Board Working Hard On Ordinances

Richard Moseley chairman of the Planning Commission reports that the members of that board have been doing a monumental piece of work in preparation of working out "Minimum requirements for submitting the preliminary and final plats for proposed subdivisions of the city."

Working on the sub-committee in developing the proposed ordinance in general terms has been Bill Burns Chairman, Bennie Archer and Hilliard Thomas while the committee working diligently on the specifics of the proposed ordinance were Richard Williams, chairman, Henry Siebman and Charlie Burke.

The work on this ordinance is near completion, following which the sub-committee composed of Jack Tumlinson as chairman with Albert Matula as committeeman will complete work on a Zoning ordinance. Chairman Moseley says that this committee will be increased. Next in order will then be a master street plan.

The planning commission is composed of the following: Richard Williams, Hilliard Thomas, Charlie Burke, Albert Matula, Bennie Archer and Bill Burns. Bill Black is legal adviser with Wayne Wieser, City Secretary as secretary and W. D. Bigbee, engineer.

Today's Text—What time I am afraid, I will trust in thee. — Psalm 56:3.

Our Father, for the fears of our hearts substitute a steadfast confidence that trusts thee always. In Jesus' name. — Amen.

Thumbnail Sketches of returning Yoe Lettermen

MONROE BAYER - 201 pound tackle. Will be shooting for his third letter. Was a regular his sophomore year. He is very agile and aggressive—a definite candidate for all District and all State. He is a senior.

PAUL HOELSCHER - 185 pound guard, also shooting for his third letter. He was a starter his sophomore year, playing regular as an offensive guard and a defensive tackle. Paul is a very aggressive blocker and a definite candidate for all District and with a good year could make all State. Paul is a senior.

JOHNNY SOLOMON - Johnny was a utility player last season. He is fully capable of playing a tackle, guard or center. He weighs in at 170, and is one of the best punters on the squad. Johnny is a senior and will be trying for his second letter.

GUY DILLON - 190 pound back. He is a junior and looked very promising in spring training. He is a fast starter and he hits the line of scrimmage with explosive power. A rough and tough line-backer and is the finest fullback since the days of Howard Beale.

Milam Aggies; Exes Hold Basket Lunch Meet Tonight

All Ex-Aggies and new are expected to meet, with their basket lunches, at the Narvie Caperton Lake on Highway 36 East of Cameron at 7 p.m. Thursday night (tonight) September 6.

The supper sponsored by the Milam County A and M Mother's Club is being held so that all Milam County families of Aggies and Exes may meet and break bread together and discuss their common bond, Texas A and M. Mrs. W. W. Balhorn, secretary of the Mother's Club announced Tuesday.

ceived from the Santa Fe offices in Galveston this week.

A substitute application has been filed with the Railroad Commission to withdraw service on these two runs only between Galveston and Houston.

In discussing reasons for these actions L. M. Olson, vice president and general manager of the Railway, said "Studies show that substantial losses of head-end or mail and express business would result on other portions of the Santa Fe system if the trains five and six were discontinued between Fort Worth and the Oklahoma state line and between Houston and Temple. These losses would not apply to the segment between Galveston and Houston. Therefore we concluded for the present to continue to operate trains five and six between Kansas City and Houston."

The Texas Chief will continue to operate daily between Galveston and Chicago. The Chief will provide through Pullman service and will in addition make intermediate stops serving the communities between Galveston and Houston which are not at present served by this streamliner.

"Studies are underway looking toward improvement in schedules and equipment to attract more passenger patronage as well as head-end traffic," Olson said.

Coaches Speer, Webster Bolster Yoe Mentor Jackson's '56 Hopes

By James E. "Bo" Patterson
Jim Speer and Murphy Webster are the coach replacements for Principal Young and Homer Tompkins of the '55 staff. Speer has been a defensive end and full-back in college and Army Air-force play and for approximately 21 months at Ft. Bragg N. C. to coach a line, and with no coaching his team won two national games and hasn't lost one till yet. Webster has one year of coaching at Hockley High School out where the land doesn't lie. It shows this assignment was immediately after graduation from Midwestern University in Wichita Falls. He coached the ball carriers.

Both men are the "Openback" handlers for a couple of nice good families. Webster has taught at 12th N. Cleveland and to date the "handoff" play on paydirt to Feb. 27 Dean and the games come of it to Terence Dean and some of it gets back to Monte. Jim really has a trick play. He hands off to Jan and also punts simultaneously to Jan 3, July 1 and a "savage" only one week and returns some to Jan 3, the old man. This head studies at 30 Seventeenth Street.

Neighborly Yoe Band To Play At Buckholts Six-Man Opener

The Yoe High Band will kick off their season as they encourage the six-man Buckholts Badgers on to victory over Jonesboro Friday night at 8 p.m. at the lighted field of the Buckholts stadium.

Buckholts' new band master, Max McClaren of Cameron, through his superintendent Mrs. Coy Arledge invited Francis Cox and his Yoe band to make their opening appearance for the '56 season at their opening game.

The Badger game will be on Friday night this week only playing on Thursday night thereafter. The first game is on the earliest date allowed in the six-man conference in which Buckholts plays said Mrs. Arledge.

The Cameron people are encouraged to "Call on Buckholts" Friday night and perhaps witness for the first time the highly field six-man ball as played by the Badgers. Price of the game will be twenty-five cents for students and fifty cents for adults. "This will be an opportunity for Cameron fans to see and hear their band in its first appearance of the season and at the same time see the Six-man Badger team in action plus the highly respected practice of calling on one's neighbors," McClaren's 14 piece Badger band which had it's first "call" together only Tuesday will "call up" for the game and sit alongside the Yoe Band the director said.

You'll see these Badgers on the field with the information following in order: number, name, position, weight.

Bo Peeps

By James E. "Bo" Patterson

Joe Hawkins, City pool lifeguard, reports that more mothers are "saved" in the City pool than little ones. To the great delight of many of the youngsters the mothers come, fully clothed, into the small fry pool "to play with them." One little lady advised her mother to wear her old clothes as they prepared to go swimming, because she might ruin her good ones.

The water and sewer bonds are expected to fail. . . want to know why? Human nature. . . afraid of new taxes. While tax money would GUARANTEE the bonds, new revenues would have paid them out, but the "Aginers" are not going to bother their heads to understand all about this and too they just "Don't trust nobody." The whole thing will be explained for YOUR benefit next week. You will understand how nice "it could have been."

Conservation plans on thirty farms covering 8,761 acres of land was sponsored by the board of supervisors of the Central Texas Soil Conservation District. The board approved the conservation plans at their regular monthly conservation meeting.

A conservation group southwest of Buckholts met with the board and discussed their need for a land leveling machine. The machine would be used for preparing land in the Little River bottom for irrigation. John Zajicek, Ed Senkel and John Wazel had the group meeting with the board.

The Knob Creek association met in conjunction with the Board of Supervisors to lay plans for starting the planning of a detailed program of up-stream flood prevention on Knob Creek.

Metorological data shows that rainfall around Temple from September 1, 1955 to July 1, 1956 amounted to 11.9 inches. This is a 61 percent departure from normal. This points out the importance of farming in a way to conserve moisture in the ground and have the soil ready to take any moisture that falls. The basic points to remember in farming with a shortage of moisture is the amount of plowing and the use of cover and residue. During the fall and winter have your soil open, but covered so it will be ready to take moisture as fast as it falls. Now is the time to start work on hard pans and poor structure in your soil.

J. E. Powell at Little Flock has recently completed two miles of channel type terraces which empty on a wide Bermudagrass waterway. The waterway was put in 2 years ago. His conservation farming program includes hubam clover in his rotation of crops. His farm has been in cultivation for about 40 years and he intends to keep the fertility at a high level.

Farmer's Tax Guide IRS 225 Gives Tax Procedure On "Drought Sale" Of Stock

Drouth stricken farmers and ranchers have been provided income tax relief on the sale of livestock by Public law 629, it was announced today by R. L. Phinney, District Director of Internal Revenue, Austin, Texas.

When a farmer has to sell his livestock in excess of the number that he usually sells in his ordinary business, due to drouth, he can consider the sale as an involuntary conversion.

"Tax relief relating to involuntary conversions have," Mr. Phinney explained, "applied before to such things as the burning of your house, losses by flood, etc. on which insurance is collected. No tax is due on the sale of property from an involuntary conversion if the property is replaced with like kind within a specified period generally before the end of the following year."

Phinney explains that the Farmers Tax Guide for 1955, IRS Publication 225, gives procedures farmers should follow in Chapter 13. This free publication is available at IRS and county agents' offices. "Hundreds of farmers in this area used this publication in preparing their 1955 tax returns," Phinney concluded.

LITTLE RIVER PHILOSOPHER WORRIED OVER THE IDEA OF SCIENCE'S BRINGING OUT AN ATOMIC POWERED TRACTOR

Editor's note: The Little River Philosopher on his Johnson grass farm on Little River may be going out of his way to find something to worry about, his letter this week indicates.

Dear editor:

According to an article I read in yesterday's paper, well it wasn't yesterday's paper according to the date, which was about a week old, but any paper I read yesterday, if I haven't seen it before, is yesterday's paper as far as I'm concerned, scientists are predicting they'll have an atom powered airplane ready to fly in a couple of years.

They said they based this on the fact the atompowered submarine, which has now traveled 50,000 miles without refueling, is such a great success.

And furthermore, they said, after the atom-powered airplane will come atom-powered automobiles.

Now, I don't know what this will do to filling station operators, there won't be much for them to do if they can fill up your car with atomic energy and you won't have to come back until fifty or seventy five thousand miles later, sounds like the hours would be fine though the pay might be low, but I guess they'll think of something, maybe join the small family size farmer as a political problem and let Sec. Benson worry about them.

However, what's worrying me is that science isn't going to be satisfied to leave well enough alone and after they get airplanes and cars and trains running in definitely on atom power, some smart alec will turn his efforts to tractors.

Now a tractor that'd run almost forever with one handfull of atom power sounds all right, for the man who's powered with old fashioned plowing, but I'd like to point out there are some farmers who look on a stalled tractor as one of the handiest things you can have on a farm. You take a man who's powered with old fashioned food three times a day and put him on an atom-powered tractor that'll run forever on one doze, and you can begin to see that science is no unmixed blessing.

I don't want to stand in the way of progress, and while I don't believe science can ever invent a machine so efficient I'd want to run it all the time, you can see that this idea of an endlessly running tractor operated by a fast turning man needs some careful thought before it's brought out. It is a question of who's going to be in charge, a man or his tractor?

Your faithfully,

Double Jeopardy

Most likely you can't picture yourself being brought into court on anything worse than a speeding violation. Nearly everyone feels that way. Even so, it is good to know that in this country you can't be made to stand trial twice for the same offense.

We have a provision in the U.S. constitution against "double jeopardy". That's one of the important safeguards in our system of law which makes it certain that once a court has reached a verdict of "innocent", the acquitted person may not be put on trial again for the same offense.

To add to the protection, if a person has been acquitted, the prosecution cannot appeal the case to a higher court. The constitution states specifically: "Nor shall any person be subject for the same offense to be twice put in jeopardy of life and limb." This right holds good, however,

A VAST NEW HOLIDAY LAND in the heart of Texas will be created under the Brazos River Authority's master plan for development of the river. The map shows how the Authority's Six-Dam Program will provide a chain of lakes 250 miles long stretching between Whitney Dam at Waco and Possum Kingdom above Mineral Wells. This continuous body of water, convenient to virtually all Texas sportsmen, will become a center of a great new recreation industry. This Land of Lakes of Texas will provide boating, fishing and the Brazos Valley of an ample water supply for irrigation, industry and municipal use far into the future. A by-product will be hydro-electricity. Besides the Six-Dam Program, the Authority plans various other reservoirs for local water supply and for special purposes, such as Allens Creek and South Bend, shown on the map.

government might be run down by repeated attempts to carry on a prosecution against him."

it would be most fitting if you would take this occasion to thank the civil defense volunteers for the work they have done.

GO TO CHURCH ON SUNDAY

Fashions from feed bags, such as this attractive style, will be among the entries in the fourth annual cotton bag sewing contest at the Heart O' Texas Fair in Waco, Sept. 29-Oct. 5. A portable electric sewing machine and case prizes will be awarded for the best articles of clothing and household accessories. The contest is a feature of the Women's Department. The best entry will qualify for the national competition in Chicago to determine the 1956 National Cotton Bag Sewing Queen.

Civil Defense Week Observed September 9-15

Texans, preparing their observance of National Civil Defense Week September 9-15, were reminded today that their state is no stranger to disaster.

"It is one of the 'first' of which Texas does not brag that we have more major disasters each year than any other state in the union," William L. McGill, state coordinator of civil defense and disaster relief, said.

Storm, fire, flood and explosion have taken hundreds of Texas lives, injured thousands, dislocated the loves of thousands of others and destroyed property valued at millions of dollars in the last few years, McGill said.

"National Civil Defense Week is in a way a tribute to all those who have given so unselfishly of their time and efforts in this cause," McGill said. "These people are members of your family, your neighbors and your friends. Whether or not there is an organized observance of Civil Defense Week in your community,

Share The Road Or Stop Driving Says Texas Safety Association Veep

"Share the road, or stop driving. If that's back seat driving, make the most of it!"

That statement was made today by Mrs. C. Aubrey Stewart of Ft. Worth, Vice President for Women's Activities of the Texas Safety Association. Although she smiled, as she took motorists to task for their dangerous and inconsiderate highway behavior, there could be no doubt she meant every word of it.

"As long as motorists keep in step with the drivers around them traffic moves smoothly and safely," she said. But when some driver - through restlessness or absentmindedness - gets out of line, anything can happen.

"Some people can't seem to unwind. They're tense, nervous and anxious and this is reflected in their driving," she said. "Of course, I don't advise anyone to poke along and impede traffic, either. The thing to do is strike a happy medium - not too fast, not too slow, keep in step with the traffic flow."

Mrs. Stewart reminded drivers to be especially careful to pace themselves by the traffic around them when driving on superhighways, because the higher speeds permissible on such roads make the danger of accident greater and the results of an accident is much more severe.

Any wheat producer who has a regular wheat acreage allotment may take part in the soil bank's acreage program for the 1957 winter wheat crop, Robert Shrauner, chairman of the Texas Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Committee, has announced.

Milans so you can see that mail dispatching can get pretty hectic if the addresses are illegible or improper.

Also you might remember to put the right amount of postage on your letter. No one wants to pay for the privilege of hearing from you no matter how much he loves you.

John Hays mentioned the matter of dogs when he was in Rockdale. His philosophy is "Our carriers do not have time to fool around and take a chance of being bitten by a darned dog."

John Hays, taking the floor back from the speaker, rejoined with the admonition that "If you have dogs you'd better keep them tied up or otherwise keep them from fussing with our carriers or you will have to pick up your mail at the postoffice."

Postoffice Biggest Business In World Rotarians Are Informed

During the Republican convention practically all of the Washington department heads were in San Francisco but the mail went through declared Clyde Franklin, Rockdale Postmaster, as he completed a home and home engagement with Cameron Postmaster John Hays before the Rotary Club Wednesday at noon.

On the premise that every citizen is interested in the mailing service Postmaster Hays introduced the speaker from Rockdale who formerly lived in Cameron and has been Chairman of the Postmaster's Association of the Eleventh Congressional District.

Franklin was our first Postmaster General, the speaker said. Even before there was a United States Benjamin Franklin, who is not related to the speaker, as far as he can determine, was head of the Colonial Post Office.

In 180 years this country has grown to the greatest nation in the world and the founders knew that there had to be some form of speedy communication.

In the early days it took a month to six weeks to get a letter from New York to Mount Vernon. The news of Washington's death took ten days to reach Boston.

Today over half million employees paid more than a quarter billion dollars annually carry the mail.

Today the world's biggest business handles 175 million pieces of mail daily. Issues 23 billion stamps, annually, (tain end to end would be 359,000 miles of stamps) enough to encircle the world 14 times.

Many economies in operation have been made lately but in spite of every effort we are still operating at a huge loss. The postal rate structure is solely under control of Congress and today rates were set in 1932 except for some minor adjustments.

Everyone should know that if the postal expense is not paid by the user of the mail the loss must be made up from taxes. Over 60 percent of the total income taxes are paid by individuals and corporations pay the 40 percent. If letters are raised to 4 cents each, statistics show that due to the large volume of business mail, business firms will pay 75 percent of the increase and the individual advantage of the infrequent user of the mails.

Second Class mail cost the department 235 million dollars in 1955 which is out of proportion to the possible educational value of the publications.

What can you do to help? 1. Mail early (before five o'clock) 2. Clear address on letters and packages.

There are 14 Camerons and four other offices have Cameron as will be out only 25 percent. Thus low letter rates works to the disadvantage of the name. You can imagine the quandary a clerk would be in if he had a letter for Cameron and no state is named.

When I became postmaster there were 5 Rockdales as post offices but now there is only ONE. Rockdale has outlived all the towns of the same name.

Milano has the unique distinction of being the only office so named in the United States but there is a very famous town named Milano in Italy. Even so there are in the U.S. 2 Milams and 14

Both Conventions Showed Lack Of Respect For Flag And Prayer

One shocking aspect of the Democratic and the Republican conventions has been the disrespect shown for the national anthem, the flag itself and the prayers offered by ministers.

Viewers of both conventions have seen delegates milling around and talking while prayers were being given and the anthem sung. Probably more guilty than the rank and file delegates are the party leaders assembled on the platforms. They could easily be seen walking back and forth, stopping to talk to someone, during prayer and the singing of the anthem.

Business on the platform went on while colors were being presented. Delegates were seen breaking through the color guard procession and pushing Old Glory aside in their unnecessary haste.

Certainly the business of neither convention was so important that a few seconds could not be taken out for prayers, the national anthem and the posting of the colors. With all the oratory going on, the delegates and party leaders could have shown more respect for these three activities.

These are the people who should be setting examples for their fellow Americans. Showing disrespect for prayer, the national anthem and the flag is a poor way to set an example.

Jury Duty Is, In Fact, Civic Duty

Apparently the constitutional amendment which now permits women to serve on juries in the state courts of Texas has failed to take up the slack in areas or in particular trials where panels and venues have proved inadequate in the past. One sign of this failure is the stepped-up campaign of the State Bar of Texas to inculcate a willingness on the part of the citizenry to accept jury duty.

A recent bulletin from the state bar lays emphasis on jury duty as a "civic duty" and points out that those who fail to vote or try to shirk jury duty are citizens who do not value their freedoms enough "because (they) haven't had to pay for them through hardship and suffering. Jury duty is a privilege enjoyed by the free citizens of our country, giving us an opportunity to participate personally in the administration of justice."

This is all true but, as the bulletin points out, a man or woman may accept jury duty and still be remiss. The juror must be fair and impartial, above all else. He must never forget that someday he may be in the dock and his neighbor on the jury.

To serve well, the juror must be attentive; he must be free of bias and he must be ruled by his intelligence rather than by his emotions. Above all else, he must never assent to a verdict which violates his conscience. It is strange that in this land of most freedom there are so many indifferent to their civic rights and obligations both at the ballot box and in the jury box.

To Save A Life

So many children have been trapped and smothered playing in discarded ice boxes and refrigerators that Congress this year enacted and President Eisenhower signed a law requiring manufacturers to provide safety devices whereby a slight push will open these latched doors from within.

However, it will be many years before this law will have its full effect. Old refrigerators, still in use and still slated for discard, will continue to be a menace to the child. It would be a wise precaution for everyone, dealer and individual, to make certain no refrigerator is discarded until the doors have been removed. The life of a single child would make the precaution worthwhile.

The course in Intermediate Speed Radio Operation which is given at the Armor Training Center Fort Knox, Kentucky consists of 12 weeks of learning transmission of messages, verbally, visually and electrically while the course in transportation movements encompasses 7 weeks of study in transportation methods of troops and equipment, at Fort Eustis, Virginia.

Girl high school graduates between 18 and 34 can obtain information on enrolling for a specific course of training by contacting their local army recruiter, Technical Sergeant Dermody, in Cameron each Thursday.

War Orphans Going To School In Fall Should Apply Early

Young men and women planning to attend school this fall under the new War Orphans Education Law should file applications as soon as possible to avoid unnecessary delays in receiving their first allowance check. Dr. George T. McMahan, manager of the Veterans Administration Regional Office in Waco, said.

Application forms are available at all VA offices. Persons eligible for schooling are those whose veteran-parent died of injuries or diseases resulting from military service during World War I, World War II or the Korean conflict. Dr. McMahan said. Students generally must be between 18 and 23 years old.

Prompt action is needed because normally it will take about three months from the date of application to the date the initial check is placed in the mail.

The three-month period between application and receipt of the first check is necessary because of the processes required by the law, Dr. McMahan said.

Homework Necessary On Highway Program Says U. S. Chamber

It's not too early, says the Chamber of Commerce of the United States, for your community to start doing some homework on the local impact of the new national highway program.

While in one sense the program is national, its greatest impact will be local - i.e. population centers will be most affected.

Of course, new or improved highways will bring a host of benefits. But there also will be many problems, which, the Chamber points out, will rest with communities. Here are a few:

Central cities will feel an increased pull from the suburbs. Suburban communities will find themselves faced with new and even staggering requirements for sewer and water facilities, schools, streets and parking facilities.

Expansion of all municipal services may be needed - fire and police protection, trash collection.

The Chamber suggests that business men and other civic leaders meet with community officials to bring themselves up to date on new street and highway plans. Once this is done, civic groups should prepare to help guide local development of the new highway program along lines most likely to benefit all sectors of the community. Every step should be taken to see that the general public is kept fully informed on progress of street and highway plans.

Obviously, united action by all groups affected is the best way to cope with the variety of problems certain to arise as the highway program gets underway, the Chamber points out.

How do you get relief from hay fever? A sea voyage during "your" season would do it. So would staying in an air filtered room. But since neither action is practical, check with your doctor about a series of "pollen extract" shots.

GO TO SEA OR SEE YOUR DOC

Hay fever season is a year-around affair in Texas. The reason behind this sad state of affairs, says the Department of Health, is Texas' wide range of climatic and soil conditions which produce an assortment of offending flora trees and shrubs and grasses.

Ragweed pollen is still the biggest enemy of the watery-eyed set, Department officials say, but mountain cedar, scrub elm, and a variety of other plants and grasses also cause their share of sneezing misery.

"The record need not be complicated," Phinney explained. "A simple pocket diary or desk calendar pad is sufficient to list deductible expenses. This record, supported by receipts, is worth many times the cost of keeping it. Ordinary records should not be destroyed for at least three years after you file your return, since all income tax returns are subject to examination," Mr. R. L. Phinney cautioned.

Child Farm Labor Prohibited During School Hours

Every commercial farmer and grower whose products move in interstate commerce directly or indirectly will become subject to the child-labor provisions of the Federal Fair Labor Standards Act when the autumn school term opens, a Federal spokesman said here today.

"This law," he said, "exempts growers of agricultural and horticultural products from its $1 minimum wage and overtime provisions, but it specifically prohibits employment of children under 16 years of age in agricultural oc-

Education For Safety. September means back-to-school for more than 1,750,000 Texas children. To be complete, their education should include some instruction in traffic safety, urges Carol Lane, motoring authority and women's travel director of Shell Oil Company. While thousands of high schools throughout the country offer driver training courses, safety education can start earlier, she says. The elementary-school youngsters above, for instance, are being taught the safe way to cross a street — one phase of a recent prize-winning project in the Carol Lane Awards for Traffic Safety program. "By teaching our children the elements of traffic safety, we will make them more careful, safer motorists when they are old enough to drive," says Miss Lane.

Occupations during hours school is in session in the school district in which they live while working.

"In other words, children of any age may be employed on the farm by the grower in the planting, cultivating, harvesting or handling of agricultural products during vacation periods, on weekends and before and after school. The grower may use his own children in agricultural work at any time and at any age on his own farm."

He advised growers to consult with state officers, local school attendance officials or study State laws to determine their provisions. When the State child-labor standards are higher than those of the Federal law, the State law should be observed.

Fathers Advised To Notify Draft Board Of New Births

The state draft call for October will be the biggest since December 1955, Colonel Morris S. Schwartz, state Selective Service director, announced Thursday.

Local board quotas for October induction and pre-induction examination are scheduled to be mailed from state Selective Service headquarters on Wednesday, August 29.

The October quota will be filled with men who are 22 years of age or older on October 1, with the exception of delinquents or volunteers, who may be younger.

Colonel Schwartz said he expected the October call to be filled with volunteers and men without children.

He warned young fathers to advise boards of fatherhood or an expected child, as boards by law treat a father as childless unless he furnishes the facts as legally required.

Crossed Eyes A Serious Defect; Need Attention

Don't assume that a child will outgrow crossed eyes, warns Dr. Henry A. Holle, Commissioner of Health. Crossed eyes are a serious defect. Vision in the crossed eye may fail to develop and the child will grow up without useful sight in that eye. In later years, the eye may straighten and appear normal, yet the person will be partially blind — often without knowing it.

The child is disturbed, but often too young to explain his difficulty. He squints his eyes and tilts his head, unconsciously trying either to combine the two images into one, or simply to ignore one image altogether. But neither attempt succeeds. So he finally gives up trying to see with both eyes. He subconsciously eliminates the image in one eye, now sees only one image, and actually becomes accustomed to "one-eyed" sight.

The longer a child is cross-eyed, the more difficult it is to improve his vision. If treated early — preferably before the age of four — crossed eyes can usually be corrected. Some forms of treatment can be started as early as the age of one year. And even cross-eyed children up to nine or later can occasionally regain normal sight if they receive competent medical treatment. The specialist may first recommend glasses if the youngster is near- or far-sighted; in some few cases that alone will do the job.

One set of eyes can last a lifetime but it takes responsible care by parents during the years of childhood. Habits formed then will carry over into adulthood.

Korean Vet Should File Schooling Intentions Early

"Korean veterans planning to start school this fall should file their applications now to beat the last minute rush", Dr. George T. McMahon, Manager of the Veterans Administration Center in Waco, said today.

"We expect some 9000 veterans to be in schools and training establishments in this region and by applying early veterans can help prevent delay in processing their papers," Dr. McMahon said.

Application forms may be obtained at any VA Office. The completed application, along with a photostat or certified copy of the veteran's separation paper, should be sent to the Waco VA Regional Office. Papers should not be sent to the Veterans Administration in Washington, D. C.

Veterans with dependents should have the necessary proof when VA requests it. These are marriage or birth certificates.

Finally, Dr. McMahon said veterans should take along enough money of their own to tide them over the first two months of training as it takes about that long for a veteran's first monthly check to reach him.

SENSATION OF THE CENTURY —at an easy-to-take price

It's Bonanza Time at Buick Dealers!

FIRST TIME you take the measure of a '56 Buick CENTURY, you'll know what the sports-car folks mean when they say the CENTURY is a great performer.

The getaway is right away—the road feel superb—the handling a joy. For this is Buick's most spirited and spectacular car.

It has the highest power-per-pound ratio in all Buick history.

It rides on a chassis compact to the last ounce and inch.

It takes to movement like a prima ballerina—nimble to the nth degree.

And when you press the pedal you get the response of Buick's mightiest V8 engine and the silk-smooth wizardry of an advanced new Variable Pitch Dynaflo* that lets you switch the pitch for emergency acceleration that's the most satisfying safety measure in the land today.

As we said, the name is CENTURY.

And, as you'll discover, the price is a cinch. For the CENTURY is just a cut above Buick's lowest-price SPECIAL Series—and that's just a cut above the well-known smaller cars.

So you really ought to try a '56 CENTURY . . .

Especially now, while your present car is at its peak worth . . .

Especially now, at today's Buick prices (who knows when they'll ever be as low again!) . . .

And especially now, with Buick so solidly in the Top 3 of America's best sellers—and that kind of sales volume permitting us to make you an even finer trade-in allowance.

Drop in on us this week—today would be even better!—and see what a buy you can make right now on the best Buick yet.

*New Advanced Variable Pitch Dynaflo is the only Dynaflo Buick builds today. It is standard on Roadmaster, Super and Century—optional at modest extra cost on the Special.

COACHES —
be well remembered as a ball carrier and defensive end in that "Good Ole Baylor line." He is going to develop a "Good Ole Yoe Line" in '56 while Webster is getting some good men in shape, or men in good shape, as the case may be for filling in the gaps in the Speer line as well as in the Jackson backfield. They call him the "Feeder team" coach.

Scholastically Speer lacked five hours of getting a sheepskin from Baylor in '52 when he had to sign up to go play "hide-n-seek" with Chinese over in Korea. That was his last year of play with the Bears and after Korea he got those five hours in '53 and so this is his first year at coaching in schoolboy football. It could be said that he is "Just getting his feet wet" but that wouldn't be exactly correct for 'tis found that he is a Baptist as are his compatriots Webster, and Leo Jackson along with their families.

Professor Speer will tutor Yoe scholastics on the great old state of Texas. Senior Texas History, that is.

Pedagogue Webster will do a little juggling with A plus B equals XYZ in Algebra 1 with Yoe freshmen and sophomores.

Coach Jackson is gaining courage daily to tackle the 9AAA competition as he sees the work of Webster-Speer and his proteges on the gridiron in their workout sessions.

Principal Dick Young, while he has hung up his cleats, was asked about his thoughts on the '56 Yoe prospects. He looked ruefully at the scholastic records with 323 already registered and while 370 is the breaking point where Yoe is placed in the triple A competition he noted that Yoe is stuck with that classification "Whether we like it or not". He assured all that he is not "dabbling" in foot ball, this year or henceforth but with a "football heart" still pounding he said "Fans won't notice much difference in football this year." "We have a good team, good coaches and good prospects."

WATER —

bottom would require special construction to prevent surface water contamination during periods of overflow but this would not present too many problems.

It would be necessary to determine that such a supply would meet Cameron's needs for the future and for the long range future since if the present surface water supply is abandoned it might be difficult to secure a source of water later if the well water supply became insufficient.

WELLS IN WILCOX SAND EAST OF CAMERON:

There are good possibilities for securing wells of a capacity of 500 gallons per minute each of an approximate depth of 400 feet. These wells would be located about 8 miles east of Cameron. They would be getting water from the Wilcox sand or possibly the Simsboro sand. This would be the same sand which is developed for some of the water supply for the aluminum plant at Rockdale.

A combined aeration and iron removal plant would be required which would probably cost nearly as much to build as a filter plant to purify the river water.

It would be necessary to drill several test holes to determine the adequacy of this source for the near future as well as for the long range requirements. Comparative cost estimates for a well water supply and for a filtered water supply are given later in this report in the section under "River Water Supply."

The report then goes into the future river water supply and in the beginning of this study refers to a CERTIFIED FILING No. 41 recorded by the Board of Water Engineers in Book 1, pages 153-54 on March 26, 1914. This permit is recorded also in Volume 124, page 319 of the Deed Records of Milam County.

A CERTIFIED FILING HAS PRIOR RIGHTS OVER ANY PERMIT GRANTED BY THE BOARD OF WATER ENGINEERS. This filing permits the use of 3,231,000 gallons daily, or about 2.2 times as much as ever used by Cameron on any maximum day and should be adequate for a population of 12,000, a per capita use of 115 gallons daily and a maximum daily use of 2.35 times the average annual daily use.

This complete report covers another five pages of typewritten matter and goes on to show the adequacy of the river supply since installation of the Belton Reservoir and the inherent right of Cameron to that water in the amount of 5 second feet or more than three and a quarter million gallons daily.

Each councilman, the mayor and the city office has one of these reports and anyone may see them for the asking.

ing over as regular quarterback in mid-season. He is a fine field general, and his ball handling is above average. Bobby is the only returning regular from the 1955 Yoemen backfield. He weighs 150 pounds and is a junior.

There are six more returning lettermen whose sketches, along with the upcoming B squad boys next week. The remainder of the returning lettermen are Jesse Kirk, Hubert Marek, Jimmy Smalley, Ferrell Angell, Sidney Karnaek, and Gene Hillman.

The B squad finds much excellent material from which the coaches will fashion the supplemental ball carriers and blockers in the Yoe team. They are: Warren Rinn, Archie Mraz, Toddy Lawrence, Johnny Davis, George Zarosky, Johnny Tepera, Johnny Rubac, Raymond Tepera, Albert Hoelscher, Billie Kostrun, Kenneth Bowley, Lee Hollas, Leon Ernst, Burp Thomas and Allen Dodson.

The following boys continued to show improvement, says coach Leo Jackson, and with a little more experience could make a strong bid for a place on the "A" team. They are: Bartow Johnson, Steve Dohnalik, Daniel Tepera, Dan Mitchan, Eddie Pavelik, Robert Glaser, James Manning, Paul Young, Roger Terry, Rodney Folschinsky, Turner Newton, Billy Matthews, William Pagach, D. Meeks and John Wayne Josey.
